A GRAND OPPORTUNITY FOR SOME CONGRESSMAN

In introducing any new measure before Congress for enactment into law, a congressman is very apt to consider only the wishes of his constituents. If the measure he has in mind would be unpopular to the district he represents, it is rarely that a congressman is bold enough to stand on principle and propose his measure nevertheless. He may not be re-elected. It is well enough for the statesman of the past to say: "I would rather be right than be president!" But the modern statesman would rather be congressman than be right.

All of which means just this. There is, without doubt, some representative from a Southern district who personally is opposed to the lynching of Negroes. Lynching is peculiar to the South. Down there it is just as much a habit as voting the Democratic ticket. It is common enough to hear the Southerner say that the rights of the Negro are zealously guarded and regarded. But upon the slightest provocation, he will grab his rifle, pull down his slouch hat and turn up his coat collar and join the mob in burning, or hanging, or riddling a poor Negro—innocent or guilty.

This habitual lynching business has come to a pass where the Federal government ought to take a hand. As we said last week, it should be made a federal offense, and that without further delay. As it is contrary to the boasted American spirit of fairness and in direct violation of the American Constitution, it is a stab in the heart of the nation.

Here is the grand opportunity for some congressman to render a real service to his age and immortalize his own name. What though he fail of re-election? If his district spurns him, his nation will honor him.

We believe that, at heart, the nation is opposed to lynching. We believe that the American people as a whole consider lynching a civil crime, a moral sin, a national disgrace and the work of cowards.

All that is needed is to mold this sentiment into a concrete expression. It would be a magnificent thing coming from a Southern Congressman. But if there is none with enough moral sense and backbone, then let a Northerner introduce such a measure at the next session of Congress.

Meantime, we call upon our local branches of the Business League and N. A. A. C. P. to get into immediate touch with their national organizations and urge a nation-wide agitation to make lynching a federal offense.

REQUIRES WORK FOR VICTORY

Just a few weeks ago the Supreme Court of the United States handed down a decision making void the "grandfather clause" in the several Southern states. The Negro generally was well pleased and rejoiced over the victory, without apparent thought of the cost. The cost was great. It took time and money to win. We have other battles to fight, right here in our own city. A few months ago, when the question of segregation first came up, we did manage to marshal a few of our forces together under the direction of the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and we believe much good was accomplished. But now the question of segregation is making its appearance again. Awake! N. A. A. C. P., get yourself together. Rally all your forces. We cannot afford to sleep or let up now. We make this call for every man and woman who believes in right and justice to join in this movement. A call no doubt will be issued by the N. A. A. C. P. in a few days for a meeting. Let everyone respond. Remember, it takes time, patience and money to win this fight. You are the beneficiary.

THE HOSPITAL PROBLEM

Unfortunately, the Provident Hospital has been a problem ever since its establishment. There are three conspicuous reasons for this fact: First, St. Louisians have always been satisfied to permit a few charitable citizens to bear the responsibility for its existence; second, it has not been favored with the co-operative support of the physicians; and third, the public has not clearly understood its value and needs. The first is commendable to the few loyal citizens who have borne the brunt of the struggle. The second is deplorable, because the physicians should be the active heads of a hospital just as the minister is the leading spirit of the church. The third can be easily rectified. We cannot believe that St. Louisians wish the hospital closed. We know there is a lack of knowledge regarding its essential needs. Many, a great many, believe a hospital should be self-sustaining. Few realize the fact that no institution of the kind, from the smallest to the largest, can or does exist on its fees alone. Millions of dollars are poured into the hospitals of the country annually for their maintenance. For this we have a Saturday and Sunday hospital collection each year. To properly maintain our hospital in its present quarters it should have a contribution of $5,000 a year besides the fees. Churches, societies and individuals should not only strive to retain this institution, but should enlarge its service. Let us get together. Provident Hospital shall not be closed.

INSPIRATION OF THE COUNTRYMAN

By Peter Radford.

When you enter the agricultural department of the county fair, you feel your soul uplifted and your life takes on a new power—that is the inspiration of the soil. You are overpowered by the grandeur and magnificence of the scene—that is the spirit of the harvest. You can hear the voice of nature calling you back to the soil—that is opportunity knocking at your door. It is a good chance to spend a quiet hour in contact with the pure and perfection of nature and to await on your life with its fragrance, elevate your ideals with its beauty and expand your imagination with its power.

These products of food are stored in the gods, and as an article of commerce they ought to bring top prices on any market in the world. The products of the soil are teachers and preachers as well. Their beauty gives human life its first enlightenment, their perfection sets the standard for growth of character, and their marvelous achievements excite our curiosity and lead us into the wonderful process of nature.

Before leaving the parlor of agriculture where nature is pursuing in her most graceful and artistic manner the climbing the dizzy heights of perfection, let us pause and take a retrospective view. How many of you know that after these wonderful products are raised, they can seldom be marketed at a profit? Take the blushing Elberta, for example—they were the pride of the soil and pride of the year. The onion—the nation's favorite vegetable—every year runs by the acre in the Southwest for want of a market, and as a result thousands of farmers have lost their homes. Cotton—the nation's capital—often goes begging on the market at less than cost of production.

It is great to wander through the exhibits while the band is playing and to hear the host of the marvelous fertility of the soil and the power of our ability to master science, but it is also well to remember that there is a market side to agriculture that does not reflect its hardships in the exhibits at a county fair.

UNIVERSAL PEACE

This nation is now in the midst of a controversy as to how best to promote universal peace. That question we will leave for diplomats to discuss, but peace with honor is no less important than peace between nations and it is heavily laden with property for every citizen within our commonwealth.

Many leading politicians and oftentimes political platforms have declared war upon business and no cabinet crisis ever resulted. Many have stood in high places and hurled "gas bombs" at industry; trust bays into business enterprises and bombarded agriculture with indifference. Party leaders have many times broken diplomatic relations with industry; sent political aviators spying through the affairs of business and political spies have sent torpedoes crashing into the destiny of commerce. During the past quarter of a century we have fought many a dual with war, permitted many politicians to carry on a guerrilla warfare against civilization and point a pistol at the heart of honest enterprise.

No man should be permitted to cry out for universal peace until his hands are clean from the exploitation of war for no vessel armed or laden with munitions of war should be given a clearance to sail for the port of Universal Peace. Let us by all means have peace, but peace, like charity, should begin at home.

GRASPING AT THE SHADOW

No man—especially if he is married—would deny woman any right she demands. Take the earth and give us peace, for why does woman long for the ballot?

When all is said and done, it is not the selection of the butcher more important to the householder than the appointment of a postmaster; it is not the selection of books for the family library more important than the voting bonds for jail and court house? Why does woman lay aside the important things of life? Why leave the substance and grasp at the shadow? Be it said to the credit of womanhood that it is not, as a rule, the woman who rocks the cradle that wants to cast the ballot; it is not the mother who tends the sick in the home who longs to be elected to say "Now I lay me down to sleep, this I pray for the people; it is not the daughter who hopes to reign as queen over a happy household that longs for the uniform of the suffragette. It is, as a rule, the woman who despises her home, neglects her children and scorns her motherhood that leads parades and smashes windows.

ARGUS OF AMERICAN FARMERS

National Farmers' Union Randa Union Service to Agriculture.

By Peter Radford.

The National Farmers' Union will hold its annual convention in Lincoln, Nebraska, on September seventh, and will round out the eleventh year of its activities in the interest of the American plowman. When that convention is called to order every farmer in America should pause and bow his head in honor of the men gathered there to render a patriotic and unselfish service to agriculture. That organization, born in the cotton fields of Texas, has grown until the globe of the United States is economically dealt with every question in which the welfare of the men who have been its back to the summer sun are involved. It has battled for a better marketing system, rural credit, cheap money, diversification, scientific production, agricultural legislation and has carried on its work of education and co-operation in season and out of season.

The Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America brings the question of credit more prominently before every farmer in this nation. Without organization the farmers can neither help themselves nor be helped by the United States and economic and systematic effort all things are possible.

The farmers of the United States contribute more and get less from government than any other class of business. They have better securities and pay a higher rate of interest than any other class of business. Their market more products and have less to say in fixing the price than any other business and they get more political protection and have less constructive legislation than any other class of people. The farmers can only acquire such influence in business, in government and in politics as will enable them to share equitably the fruits of their labor through organization and every farmer on American soil who desires to help himself and his fellow plowmen, should rally around the Union.

POLITICAL GOSSIPS

When one class of people has anything to say about the government, the custom to make a political issue out of it instead of a friendly discussion, to print it in a law book instead of a newspaper and to have less to say in fixing the price than any other business and they get more political protection and have less constructive legislation than any other class of people.

As a result, political agitators, political lawyers, political preachers and masculine women are powerful in politics and dissension, selfishness, intolerance and hysteria run rampant in public affairs. When the low, dark, murky atmosphere of misunderstanding envelops public thought it breeds political reptiles, vermin, and the sunbath of understanding will choke to death.

We have too many self-appointed politicians, too many people incapable of grasping the fundamental principles of business and who at best can only translate gossip and add insult to injury. No business can stand upon error and right rules—right or wrong. No industry can thrive upon misunderstanding, no government can prosper upon a King's word.

When prejudice, suspicion and class hatred prevail, power gravitates into the hands of the weak, for demagogues thrive upon dissension and statesmen sicken upon strife.

The remedy lies in eliminating the middleman—the political gossip—and this result can be accomplished by the managers of business sitting around the table of industry and talking it over with the people. Interchange of information between industry and the people is as necessary to success in business as interchange in education, and the people can only rule when the public understand. Away with political interpreters who summon evil spirits from the underworld to prey upon the people in the name of "My Country."

PHILIP

Philip, the Macedonian king, while drowsy with wine was trying a case and the prisoner after sentence was pronounced, exclaimed, "I appeal!" And to whom do you appeal? Inquired the astonished monarch. "I appeal from Philip drunk to Philip sober," replied the prisoner, and the king granted the request and the hearing gave the prisoner his liberty.

The people drowsy with the wine of dissension, pronounce a verdict on public questions which they reverse in their more calm and deliberate moments. The best thing to make up mistakes is to correct them.

A CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all our relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us in the sad loss of the death of our dear husband, Mr. Wm. Winchester, who departed this life, July 18, 1915. Especially do we thank Dr. Stevens and Foro College.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Lucile Washington, who departed this life, July 16, 1915.

Oh, dear, dear, sweetest baby, since you have passed away, it seems not it's two years ago, but only yesterday.

When I speak your loving name, my eyes will tear and wet, Oh, baby, how we loved you, and love cannot forget.

The Lord took you from us, it was his holy will, and we must accept it. And left in our hearts a vacancy, which no one else can fill.

But in our saddest moments, one happy thought holds sway. We will meet again, dear baby, and be happy some sweet day.

Sadly missed by
Mother, Sister and Relatives.

A CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McElroy desire to heartily thank their pastor, Dr. W. S. Brooks, and their many friends who were so exceedingly kind and rendered such invaluable assistance, also for the beautiful floral designs, upon the death of their dear son, Archie J. McElroy.

Who Is Turner-Gibson?

First Baptist Church

A great congregation greeted the pastor, Dr. F. F. Martyn, upon his first appearance in his pulpit, last Sunday morning, since his return from his vacation. The choir had prepared special music, which was beautifully rendered, and the pastor preached a powerful sermon, which deeply impressed the congregation and brought forward two candidates for baptism.

Another large audience was out at the evening service, and again the pastor was at his best, with a most unique and edifying sermon.

Next Sunday, Dr. Martyn will preach both morning and night.

CHARLIE MILLS

Popular Manager of the Giants, and owner of Keystone Cafe and Garden.CARLINVILLE TEAM DUE TO GET THEIR SUNDAY

If Jupiter Pluvius will just condescend to go on a vacation Sunday, let the Giants play. Manager Mills, his speed boys, and about 5,000 loyal fans will get an opportunity to realize the long-sought revenge on the now famous Carlinville team for its defeat of our prides a couple of weeks ago. Determined to show up this aggregation of future major league stars has caused Kuebler and Mills to book them again for next Sunday. Last Sunday's game was prevented by rain and probably the biggest attendance of the season was disappointed. Everybody believes the Giants only lost the game with the Carlville boys Sunday, the 11th, on account of the crippled condition of several of its star players, and the fans have been anxious to see their opinion vindicated. The Carlville team is the strongest semi-pro aggregation in the West, has several members under the eye of the big leagues and two already signed. It will be no discredit to them to fall before the Giants' big guns, yet it can be well expected they will fight hard to maintain the luke reputation they gained July 11. The game Sunday, at Kuebler's Park will start at 3 o'clock and a record crowd is the indication.

The Giants will play in Dexter, Mo., Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The citizens have a home gathering. No colored people live there and Mills and his boys will stop at a white hotel.

The Giants have won four straight games in the city (Saturday) League. It is rumored that Manager Slack, of the East St. Louis Giants who withdrew from the Interstate League a few days ago, will also withdraw his team from the City League to play Mills' team a series of games. It does it more than break up the Saturday combination.

The Giants, with 20 men, including Manager Mills, Owner Kuebler, Chas. (Dummy) Stanley, two ticket men and fifteen players, will leave St. Louis August 14 for a tour of the East. The schedule consists of games at Indianapolis, with the A. B. C. team, August 15, 16, 17; Columbus, O., 18, 19, 20; Cubans in Camden, N. J., 21; Lincoln Giants in N. Y., 22, 23; Ashbury Park, 24, 25, 26, 27; Lincoln Giants, 28, 29, 30; Atlantic City, Sept. 1, 2, 3; American Giants in Chicago, 30; return home Sept. 8. Manager Mills has secured two new players for the team, but is concealing their names. Mills will meet the team in Columbus, as he will have charge of the K. of P. commissary car on the way to the encampment there.

Cobb, one of the Giants' catchers, was called to Renardo, Miss., Tuesday, on account of the serious illness of his mother.

The Maroon Giants, a baseball team composed principally of Summer-High players has won all of its eight games this summer. They play the Walton Blues at Fairgrounds Park next Sunday at 3 p. m.

SUNDAY MORNING BASE-BALL

Get some fresh air Sunday morning. Ride to Kuebler's Park, 6100 N. Broadway and see the Union Electric play ball. Game called at 10 a. m. Admission 10 cents. W. T. Bradford, Mgr.

GREEN &amp; PUGH

At the Booker Washington this week.

The show at the Booker Washington this week fits well in the best this house has offered in a long time. Every act is good, so good in fact that position on the bill has little to do with the selection of a "feature act." Regardless of the hot weather, Mr. Turpin and his force of attendants are kept busy caring for the big attendances, especially on Mondays and Thursdays, which are pay days.

Tommy Parker and La Blanche Young open the show. Their act is made up of some really humorous dialogue, artistic and eccentric dancing and some very good singing by Miss Young, who has a strong and well-trained voice.

Miss Young makes a decided hit singing, "Every Woman's Got a Man But Me," and Mr. Parker cleans up with his song and dance, "Aha Daba Honey-moon." The act closes strong.

Isabella and Glenn have a comedy vehicle that affords good opportunity for Mr. Glenn to display his ridiculous eccentricities. The playlet is formed around a family quarrel and presents several funny situations before it is finally settled satisfactorily. They do considerable singing, keep up a continuous merriment and leave the stage in a burst of applause.

Thelma, female impersonator, is a decided deception. His makeup, that of a pink-faced blond, is so perfect that the eye cannot penetrate the disguise. He wears a handsome costume and with a fine soprano voice sings, "Good-bye, My Love, Good-bye," "Ragging the Baby to Sleep," and "You Won't My Heart." He ranks well with the best in the art.

New Automobile
Tailoring And Cleaning Service

Chas. C. Clark, formerly of Clark and Smith, has opened a tailoring shop at 3406 La Salle St. Mr. Clark has purchased a delivery automobile. He plans to give the people the quick and reliable service they demand and says, "Don't pack your clothes to a tailor, use your phone; he will call for your work and deliver it in double quick time." Mr. Clark has had 16 years' experience in the tailoring business, and is well qualified to give the best satisfaction.

Besides high-grade tailoring, he is cleaning, pressing and repairing linens, garments, carpets and draperies. He also does a rental business in fall dress suits. The change Mr. Clark has made enables him to give prices at a third less than formerly. It is no longer necessary to worry. No matter what part of the city you live in, if you wish tailoring, cleaning or pressing work, or your guests are in need of service, phone Grand 335M or Victor 3525X and have an automobile call for your work.

SUNDAY SCHOOL
OUTING JULY 28

Annual Affair at O'Fallon Park. Grounds 1 and 2. Athletic Features. Baseball Game Between Married and Single Ladies.

The annual outing of the Central Baptist Sunday-school will be given at O'Fallon Park, grounds 1 and 2, July 28. We realize that this is one of the attractions that claims the attention of many St. Louisans who spend the summer at home. Therefore we aim at making it worth your while, by having everything thoroughly and carefully arranged for your pleasure. There will be a strictly high-grade athletic program from 2 o'clock until 6. Baseball, Central vs. Antioch (boys), dashes from 25 to 100 yards, primary and junior department; basket ball, crack teams; drill, needle and thread races (women) and last, but not the best of all the day's events, will close with a game of baseball between the single ladies and married ladies, this you can't afford to miss. Good music will serve to keep your sentimental nature enraptured through the day, together with the choicest refreshments of the season. Everybody is welcome. It will be just like going out with the family to you. Come and have a "bally" time at our expense and remember it's the "school that helps," whose motto is "Only once a stranger."
